

- For now, we can manually blacklist unallocated/unauthorized numbers on our system according to the lists/DB shared by the operators. What we are doing currently with the high-risk destination countries is to block the numbers reported by carriers and customers.
- We are working currently with our system integrator to find the best solution to be implemented to abide by the STIR/SHAKEN policy.