

We have made sure that all clients are not using any type of third-party dialers. All outbound traffic is monitored and are stir-shaken compliant.

Any out-of-country users are vetted and monitored to ensure calls are not random and are made with our client's consent.

Any client found in violation of FCC rules, or our policies will be immediately terminated and forwarded to the proper authorities.