

Brandywine Technical Partners customer base are office users and not outbound call centers. We control all of the extensions and get alerted if a customer exceeds so many minutes of traffic since we are on a flat rate with them. We provide IP phones to all of our customers and we also control their DID's so we can ensure that they don't possess the capability to spoof a number.