

We do not operate as a gateway and no robocallers have access to our network. We provide Operator Services only. Calls are originated and terminated over the PSTN and those originating and terminating carriers handle the attestation. The only calls that can originate from our network without attestation are collect calls from inmate facilities.