

RavePoint provides services exclusively to medical and dental offices. Our service includes online patient scheduling, waitlist management, patient-experience surveys, and the auto-delivery of routine reminders and notifications.

We require customers to obtain patient consent prior to sending reminders and notifications. Any phone call reminders or notifications sent by customers to patients through RavePoint are delivered by carriers that handle the STIR/SHAKEN requirements for us.