

Robocall Mitigation Strategy

- All connectivity to our phone service is through PBXes managed exclusively by our company, and users therefore do not have the ability to make calls other than from telephones and devices that we have configured for them, and these devices do not allow for Robocalls.
- Will respond to any traceback requests from the traceback Consortium and will comply with those requests within a reasonable time frame.
- Disconnect any subscriber that attempts to modify the services we exclusively control