Only customers using our phone systems with usernames and passwords can make calls from our service. We also monitor monthly billing for any abnormal usage.

We are a small company with only a few customers using our system. Our call volume is very small. Any type of increase in calls would send us messages. We monitor call traffic. We also know all our customers on a first name basis. We do not take on any customers that could cause us issues. All phones and systems require usernames and password and well as have to be coming from within our system to place calls.
