Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Assurance of Non-Use of Robocalling at Advantage Media Partners

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing on behalf of Advantage Media Partners to formally address concerns regarding the use of robocalling. We want to assure the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) that our company does not utilize robocalling or any automated telephone systems to initiate calls to our customers or any other individuals.

At Advantage Media Partners, we prioritize ethical business practices and customer respect, and we are committed to complying with all applicable telecommunications regulations, including those governing robocalls. We have established policies and procedures that prevent the use of automated dialing or prerecorded voice messages, in accordance with the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and other relevant guidelines.

Should you require any additional information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us at (888) 475-7532 x260 or via email at admin@advantagemediapartners.com

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,Jeremy Madarang*Web Project Coordinator | Account ManagerEmail: admin@advantagemediapartners.com
