

Power To Grow Services is a micro-provider that provides service to local businesses.

All customers are personally known by the Principle of the company and are active customers locally.

We do not provide services to any unknown entities or anyone who I have not met personally.