

Phones on our network are assigned to specific users and devices/access can only be added/approved manually to phone systems. Firewalls are also in place to limit access of phones systems. We migrated to SBC's 2 years ago in order to become Stir/Shaken Compliant.