

We use various upstream carriers for our dial tone provider. They have a complete STIR/SHAKEN implementation that has been 3rd party verified. Our carriers also have anti-fraud protocols on their network and carry all of our voice traffic. Any abuse issues reported to us by our carriers are dealt with directly with our clients immediately up to and including disconnecting the service if applicable.