

Reliance Systems Robocall Mitigation Policy

The Reliance Systems communications services originate solely application controlled calls with no outside individual or agency control. All external access is blocked to prevent unwanted robocalls or other unauthorized access.