

we take all require documents from our customer like customer buisness details there office address proof and pwner photo id proof and process details they are dialling for and incoming caller id details registered on the there company name we don't allow any calls without valid cli or any other cli which customer has provided us we also allow calls only through ip address from there predictive diallers which can be accessed by us if we required to get the details of the process we also sign the agreement with the customer where we make sure that customer does not use our services in another process we create individual account for every users so we can trace and pull out the calls from our server and trace the calls easily we have taken maximum steps to avoid frauds and scams