

Barcelona, 11 January 2023

ROBOCALL MITIGATION

Overview

We provide origination and termination calls to our customers via SIP trunking keeping secured and dedicated circuits via vpn.

We also implement user authentication and access control.

Information security

We keep the highest standards on securing customers communications as much as we permanently monitor quality and security of all our connections.

Abuse and fraud control

24/7 availability for manual and automated abuse and fraud control.

Monitoring system

We implement manual and automated monitor for all our communication channels.

Collaboration

TELOCAN SL has the commitment to respond every request from Federal Communications Commission and cooperate on requested requirements related to our services.

You can Contact us by mail to legal@telocan.com for any problems.