

Visto Communications LLC

June 5, 2023

Regarding Robocall Mitigation:

All calls made or received through Visto's network will be in relation to our mobile app, which provides virtual number services for end users with smartphones (iPhone/Android). The app only permits a single call at a time per account, and there is no API available for customers to access. Therefore, no robocalls are possible from our system. Additionally, Visto may capture and analyze calls and/or metadata to detect and prevent illegal activity.