

We only allow customers to use CLI's for outbound calls that are assigned to their accounts. Any cli that is used that is not on the customer account is rejected.

We do not allow customers any controls to set their own caller IDs, only CLIs on the account is permitted for use and must be a number that as either been ported to us or assigned by us to the user making the call.